Section 44

1	44 Assessment and preliminary enquiries
2	(1) This section applies if:
3	(a) an alleged or suspected contravention is referred to the 4	Parliamentary Standards Commissioner under this Division;
5	and
6	(b) the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner does not refer the 7	alleged or suspected contravention under either
8	subsection $43(2)$ or $(3)$ .
9	(2) The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner must deal with the 10	alleged or suspected contravention in one of the following ways:
11	(a) by making preliminary enquiries to determine whether to 12	further inquire into the alleged or suspected contravention;
13	(b) by inquiring into the alleged or suspected contravention;
14	(c) at any time, by determining to take no further action.
15	(3) The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may make preliminary 16	enquiries under paragraph (2)(a) in such manner as the 17	Parliamentary Standards Commissioner sees fit.
18	(4) The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may decide under
19	paragraph (2)(c) to take no further action in relation to an alleged
20	or suspected contravention, at any time, only if the Parliamentary
21	Standards Commissioner is satisfied on reasonable grounds that:
22	(a) the contravention is already being, or will be, investigated by
23	another Commonwealth agency or resolved by another
24	process; or
25	(b) the referral of the allegation, or information, that raised the 26	contravention is frivolous or vexatious; or
27	(c) the conduct which is the subject of the alleged or suspected
28	contravention has been, is or will be, the subject of
29	proceedings before a court; or
30	(d) the subject matter of the allegation or suspicion does not
31	sufficiently relate to any provision of an applicable code of
32	conduct; or
33	(e) there is insufficient information or evidence with which to
34	deal or inquire into the contravention; or

36

Commonwealth Parliamentary Standards Bill 2020

1	(f) after due consideration, including any enquiries, there is 2	insufficient basis for concluding that a contravention has 3	occurred; or
4	(g) that the person who referred the allegation, or information,
5	that raised the contravention, is too remote from the 6	allegation or information; or
7	(h) further action in relation to the alleged or suspected
8	contravention is not warranted having regard to all the 9	circumstances.
10	(5) Without limiting paragraph $(4)(d)$ , the Parliamentary Standards
11	Commissioner may determine that the subject matter does not
12	sufficiently relate to any provision of an applicable code of conduct
13	on the grounds that it solely or overwhelmingly concerns:
14	(a) the political position, policy, platform, views or opinions of a 15	parliamentarian; or
16	(b) the private or personal life of a parliamentarian or of other
17	persons.
18	(6) If, at any time, the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner forms
19	the opinion that:
20	(a) a particular action by a parliamentarian, Presiding Officer or 21	Privileges Committee could be taken to rectify or resolve an 22	issue giving rise to the alleged or suspected contravention;
23	and
24	(b) the action would not prejudice any further inquiry or other 25	inquiry, or the making of a report in relation to the 26	contravention or any related matter;
27	the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may convey that
28	opinion to the parliamentarian, Presiding Officer or Privileges
29	Committee, with a recommendation that they take such action.

Section 53

Division 3—Alleged or suspected contraventions of ministerial code of conduct 53 Referral of alleged or suspected contravention
(1) A person who considers that there has been a contravention of a provision of an applicable code of conduct, being a Ministerial code of conduct, may refer the alleged or suspected contravention to:
(a) the Prime Minister; or
(b) the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner.
(b) the Famamentary Standards Commissioner.
(2) Without limiting subsection (1):
(a) the person may refer the allegation or information anonymously; and
(b) the person may refer the allegation or information either orally or in writing.
(3) If the person refers the allegation or information orally, the Prime Minister or Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may require the person to put the allegation or the information in writing.
(4) If the person is asked to put the allegation or information in writi under subsection (3), the Prime Minister or Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may refuse to deal further with the allegation or information until the allegation or information is pu in writing.
54 How alleged or suspected contraventions must be dealt with
(1) If the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner receives a referral under subsection 53(1), the Parliamentary Standards Commission must refer the alleged or suspected contravention to the Prime Minister.
(2) If, after referring the alleged or suspected contravention to the Prime Minister, the Prime Minister or Parliamentary Standards Commissioner determines that a referral under this Division may involve conduct that may constitute a criminal offence, the Prime

Commonwealth Parliamentary Standards Bill 2020

1	Minister or Parliamentary Standards Commissioner must refer the 2	alleged contravention to the Federal Integrity Commissioner, the
3	Australian Federal Police or another appropriate law enforcement
4	agency.
5	Note: Division 2 of Part 4 of the Australian Federal Integrity Commission
6	Act 2020 provides how the Federal Integrity Commissioner deals with	l
7	corruption issues including criminal offences.
8	(3) If the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner determines that a
9	referral under this Division involves a corruption issue within the 10	meaning of the Australian Federal Integrity Commission Act 2020,	,
11	the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner must, when referring 12	the allegation or suspected contravention to the Prime Minister
13	under subsection (1):
14	(a) recommend to the Prime Minister that the Parliamentary
15	Standards Commissioner inquire into the corruption issue;
16	(b) recommend to the Prime Minister that the corruption issue be	;

18	(4) The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may inquire into a 19	corruption issue under paragraph (3)(a) either alone or jointly with 20	the Federal Integrity Commissioner or with another government
21	agency with appropriate functions or powers for the purpose.
22	(5) In deciding what to recommend in respect of a corruption issue
22	under subsection (3), the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner
23	must have regard to the following:
25	(a) whether the corruption issue may involve serious corrupt
26	conduct or systemic corrupt conduct;
20	(b) the need to ensure that the corruption issue is fully 28	investigated;
29	(c) the rights and obligations of the Federal Integrity
30	Commissioner or any other agency to investigate the 31	corruption issue;
32	(d) the rights and obligations of any person who refers or 33	provides information in relation to the corruption issue,
34	including any need to protect the person's identity or 35	confidentiality or to protect the person from reprisal or

4	(5) The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may decide under
5	paragraph (3)(c) to take no further action in relation to an alleged
6	or suspected contravention, at any time, only if the Parliamentary
7	Standards Commissioner is satisfied on reasonable grounds that:
8	(a) the contravention is already being, or will be, investigated by
9	another Commonwealth agency or resolved by another
10	process; or
11 12	(b) the referral of the allegation, or information, that raised the contravention is frivolous or vexatious; or
13	(c) the conduct which is the subject of the alleged or suspected
14	contravention has been, is or will be, the subject of
15	proceedings before a court; or
16	(d) the subject matter of the allegation or suspicion does not
17	sufficiently relate to any provision of an applicable code of
18	conduct; or
19	(e) there is insufficient information or evidence with which to
20	deal or inquire into the contravention; or

10	56 Inquiries
11	(1) This section applies if the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner 11 12	decides under subsection 55(3) to undertake an inquiry into the 12	alleged or suspected contravention.
14	(2) The following provisions apply in relation to an inquiry that is 15	conducted by the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner under 16	subsection (1) (with references to the Auditor-General being
17	replaced by references to the Parliamentary Standards
18	Commissioner):
19	(a) sections 32, 33 and 35 of the Auditor-General Act 1997 ;
20	(b) any other provisions of the Auditor-General Act 1997, or of 21	regulations under that Act, that are relevant to the operation
22	of section 32, 33 or 35 of that Act.
23	(3) The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner must advise:
24	(a) the Prime Minister; and
25	(b) the parliamentarian or parliamentarians and any other persons
26	to which the contravention relates;
27	of the decision to inquire into the contravention, and of any 28	decision to take no further action in relation to the contravention.
29	(4) However, the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner need not 30	advise a person of a decision to inquire into the contravention, if 31	doing so would be likely to prejudice:
32	(a) the inquiry or another contravention inquiry; or
33	(b) the protection of the identity or confidentiality of any person

3 4		(c) any action taken as a result of an inquiry referred to in paragraph (a).
5	(5)	A parliamentarian or person employed under the Members of 6		Parliament (Staff) Act 1984 is to cooperate and assist with an 7		inquiry.
8	(6)	The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may keep any person
9		(or a representative nominated by the person) informed of the 10		progress of an inquiry, if the person:
11		(a) raised the alleged or suspected contravention; or 12		(b) is a parliamentarian or other person to whom the 13		contravention or inquiry relates.
14	(7)	Except where disclosed or authorised by the Parliamentary
15		Standards Commissioner, a House or a Committee, or in 16		accordance with this Act, a person may not disclose any relevant
17		document relating to an alleged or suspected contravention under 18		this Division.
19		Note: Subsection 69(4) provides that relevant documents, as defined by 20		subsection 63(2), are in camera evidence for the purposes of 21		section 13 of the Parliamentary Privileges Act 1987 . The penalty for 22 23		unauthorised disclosure is, in the case of a natural person, imprisonment for 6 months or 50 penalty units or, in the case of a

25	57 Report	of inquiry
26		Report and its contents
27	(1)	After completing an inquiry into an alleged or suspected
28		contravention, the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner must 29		prepare a report on the inquiry.
30	(2)	The report must set out:
31		(a) the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner's findings on the 32		contravention; and
33		(b) the evidence and other material on which those findings are 34		based; and

11	relation to an investigation of a corruption issue an opinion or 12	finding that is critical of a person (either expressly or impliedly)
13	unless the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner has taken the 14	action required by subsection (3) before completing the 15	investigation.
16	(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the Parliamentary Standards
17	Commissioner is satisfied that:
18	(a) a person may have:
19	(i) committed a criminal offence; or 20	(ii) contravened a civil penalty provision; or 21	(iii) engaged in conduct that could be the subject of 22	disciplinary proceedings; or
23	(iv) engaged in conduct that could be grounds for 24	terminating the person's appointment or employment;
25	and
26	(b) taking action under subsection (3) would compromise the 27	effectiveness of:
28	(i) the inquiry into the contravention or another inquiry; or 29	(ii) any action taken as a result of an inquiry referred to in 30	subparagraph (i).
31	(3) If the opinion or finding is critical of a person, the Parliamentary
32	Standards Commissioner must give the person:
33	(a) a statement setting out the opinion or finding; and

Section	n 59
	(b) a reasonable opportunity to appear before him or her and to make submissions in relation to the opinion or finding.
	(4) Submissions under subsection (3) may be made orally or in writing.
	(5) A person referred to in subsection (3):
	(a) may appear before the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner personally; or <ul> <li>(b) may, with the Parliamentary Standards Commissioner's approval, be represented by another person.</li> </ul>
59 Pa	rliamentary Standards Commissioner to give report to Prime Minister
	(1) The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner must give the Prime Minister:
	(a) the report prepared under subsection 57(1); and <ul><li>(b) if a supplementary report is prepared under subsection 57(6) in relation to the inquiry—the supplementary report.</li></ul>
	(2) The Prime Minister may take such actions in relation to, or as a result of, the report, as the Prime Minister sees fit.
60 Ac	lvice of outcome of inquiry
	(1) The Parliamentary Standards Commissioner may advise a person (or a representative nominated by the person) of the outcome of an inquiry, if the person:
	(a) raised the alleged or suspected contravention; or
	(b) is a parliamentarian or other person to whom the contravention or inquiry relates.
	(2) However, if the report of the Parliamentary Standards
	Commissioner under subsection 57(1) included:
	(a) a finding that a contravention occurred; or (b) a recommendation that any action be taken as a result of a contravention;
